NOVEMBER 2019

THE PASTOR'S PAGE

E-mail: PastorRandall@stjohnskenton.org

For those who have been saved by grace, and therefore recognize that all that they are and all that they have is a gift from God above, gratitude should be a defining attribute. Our hearts should sing psalms of thanksgiving as well as the lyrics of songs of thanksgiving like "Lord, I Just Want to Thank You," which goes in part:

For everything You've done for me
Thank You Lord (Thank You Lord)
I just want to Thank You Lord
I'd just want to Thank You
Lord

Still, there are many times when we forget to give thanks unto Him who has given us so much. In fact, God has given us our everything. Even our faith is a gift from above. And yet, we forever need a time like November when our hearts turn to thanksgiving. Even with this holiday, it is easy to take for granted the blessings bestowed upon us. Thanksgiving itself can be lost in the lore of the Pilgrims at Plymouth.

It was a holiday almost lost to time. In 1789, George Washington, after a request from Congress, proclaimed a day of thanksgiving more as a harvest festival, and it was celebrated intermittently until presidency of Abraham Lincoln. I am forever grateful to Honest Abe, who guided our nation through dark and turbulent times, and not only maintained his faith but saw it grow as he watched the sovereign hand of God guide our nation through freeing those bond in the peculiar institution of slavery, to vicious civil war, and to the reconciliation afterward.

In fact, it was in 1863, in the midst of the Civil War, that Lincoln proclaimed a national day "Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens." How many of us would have been so willing to give thanks in the midst of such violence and vitriol let alone call on others to do the same? Yet, Lincoln did.

Perhaps, he had in mind the writing of Thomas Fuller, the 17th century historian: "Gratitude is the least of the virtues, but ingratitude is the worst of vices." Gratitude may be the least of the virtues. After all, how hard is it to say, "Thank You"? But it can be the worst of the vices as it allows us to descend into a dark void of narcissism quite quickly.

Where Lincoln felt gratitude even while witnessing death and destruction, many today cannot find joy in the midst of much blessing. Social psychologist Jean Twenge, told New York magazine, "There's a paradox here that we seem to have so much ease and relative economic prosperity compared to previous centuries, yet there's this dissatisfaction, there's this unhappiness, there are these mental health issues in terms of depression and anxiety."

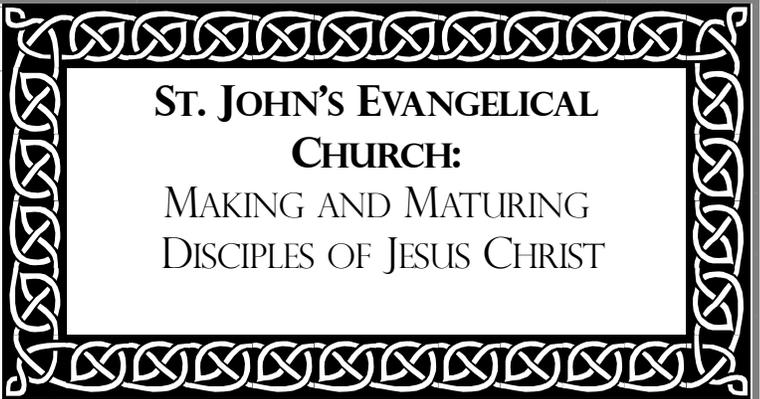

Dr. Twenge was an author to a 2009 study that appeared in Clinical Psychology Review. The study pointed out that the depression rate among college students has been increasing over the last 50 years.

This has occurred while freedoms increased, technology advanced, and economic growth had been sustained.

Even Christians are easy prey when they have been fed a distorted gospel. Some people have relied on platitudes, slogans, and pop psychology in the church instead of the full counsel of the Word, deep biblical wisdom, and discipleship. People want self-help and personal fulfillment instead of a calling to die to self and to take up one's cross daily (see Matthew 16:24 and Galatians 5:24). People turn away when they hear that the Christian life is filled with difficulty (John 16:33) and prove Jesus correct when He said, "The gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few (Matthew 7:14).

But those who do can sing a hymn of thanksgiving, and that is what we shall do in the month of November. Each Sunday of worship will center around the songs of the saints. In the first week, the song will be from Revelation while the following weeks will come from the book of Psalms (see the next page).

ST. JOHN'S EVANGELICAL CHURCH:
MAKING AND MATURING
DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST

Through it all, we will cast our eyes on the Lord and focus our minds on the blessings we have received from His hand. We will drive ourselves toward thankfulness and away from ingratitude. We will turn from self and turn (repent) toward Christ. We will choose the way of Lincoln and discover thanksgiving while others slip into despair.

Through it all, we will sing with conviction the lyrics of songs of praise and thanksgiving like "Lord, I Just Want to Thank You," which concludes:

GIVE THANKS TO THE GOD OF HEAVEN,
FOR HIS STEADFAST
LOVE ENDURES
FOREVER.
PSALM 136:26

Thank You Lord
For giving Your life for me
On the Cross of Calvary
For taking my Place
Mercy and Grace
Thank You Lord
I just want to Thank You Lord
I'd just want to Thank You Lord
For everything You've done for me
Thank You Lord (Thank You Lord)

I just want to Thank You Lord
I'd just want to Thank You Lord
For making me whole
Saving my soul
Thank You Lord
Thank You Lord!

We can never say to the Lord too many times, "Thank You for all that You have done for me," so let this be a season of thanksgiving that grows into a perpetual lifestyle.

In Christian love,
Pastor Randall

Back in the 1989, St. John's was 150 years old and printed an Advent Devotional that was written by the members. It is a treasure of Faithful writings that speaks to us today as strongly as it did thirty years ago. The following is one of the devotionals written for that booklet by our faithful senior member, Marie Zaring.

CELEBRATING CHRIST

Marie Zaring

Scripture: John 3:17

Perhaps there are two kinds of innocence. One, of course, is the innocence of a child-born of lack of learning and experience. This is pure, blind, beautiful trust and faith. We sometimes call it "wide-eyed"

The other innocence follows sophistication. It is a determined sort of thing-after knowledge and experience. After a choice has been made-a decision to believe the best of the world and mankind.

I knew a teacher once who quickly learned that she could change a child's self-image and consequently, attitudes by believing in that child in a positive way. Believing that he or she was better than appearances led one to believe.

Over and over again she watched that belief and trust that faith begins to fulfill an untapped potential. And it worked both ways. The children responded to the teacher's love and trust in them and she responded to theirs.

She chose to believe in them even though she had known them at their worst. She chose to look for their best. Looking for the best in people often does succeed in bringing out just that.

Knowledge of the world with a determined effort of Love is the true sophistication with innocence. It is knowing that there is evil and imperfection in the world, but choosing to believe and live as though every person is truly God's own-somewhere in his heart.

That sounds rather like Jesus' belief in our potential, doesn't it?

Lord, help us to keep always before us the forgiving, loving image of your beloved Son.

I realize that Advent begins on December 1st, but think everyone should have the opportunity to read these devotionals. If you would contact me, I will provide a copy.

I Give Thanks to the Lord. For He is good: His love endures forever.

Psalm 107:1

Hello St. John's Family,

Welcome to the month of November! Happy Fall! Below is a little poem for you all to read and think about for the month of November.

God puts colors for you and me....in all the Indian corn we see. Brown is for the beauty of fall. Red is God's love for us all. Yellow is for the Golden sun.... warming the hearts of everyone. Orange tells us to give God praise And, keep him in our heart each day. So bless us all the big and small And, thank you Lord for creating all.

The Disciple Me Program (Wednesday Night Program.) is off to a great start. We have around 50 kids attending right now K-5th. We have been learning and growing together in God's Love. The last few weeks, the kids have been talking about putting on the Armor of God. The 1st week they talked about the "belt" of truth and how God's truth is our guide in life. The 2nd week they talked about the "breast plate" and how righteousness protects us from sin. The 3rd week they talked about the "shoes" of the armor of God and how they can go and share the good news of Jesus with others. Then we moved on to a Halloween lesson, called Boo. In this lesson we talked about how God gives courage and even when we are afraid, we can trust God to give us the courage that we need.

We ended the month of October traveling to Furry tail farms on the St. John's bus. We had around 30 attend for this event. We also had a harvest party at the church for all the kids and gave out prizes. We enjoyed donuts and cider. There were many activities during this fun-filled night. The children had a wonderful time.

The month of November, we will be taking the Disciple Me kids to McDonalds for a happy meal and free time to play together. Thank you to the Women's Ministry for supporting this trip by taking care of all costs! On behalf of The Children's Ministry and all the kids, we would like to say a big "Thank you!"

I invite all Children to come and learn on Wednesday night at our Disciple Me program. Our St. John's bus picks up at various stops in the community. St. John's members are always welcome to help out Wednesday Night's. If interested, please contact Trish Wilcox at 567-674-1733 or email me at trishielynn25@yahoo.com.

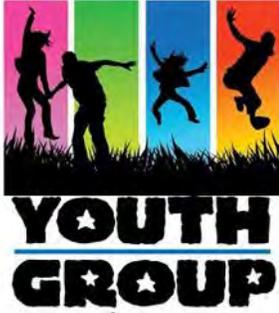

In Jr. Church we have been focusing on kids of the bible. The idea is that sometimes kids think they have to be grown-ups for God to use them, but the Bible is full of stories of kids that God used. All Children are welcome to attend. This is from 10:50am to 11:30am every Sunday.

Every Sunday, we welcome all kids PK-5th grade to attend. This is from 9:30am to 10:30am. This is right between services. PK-1st grade usually do a bible story, craft, snack, and some songs with Miss Hope. Grades 2-5th grade are learning about proverbs of the bible. They are covering 12 proverbs that are statistically the most popular with youth ministries and parents. This is led by Mrs. Dyer.

Thank to all of my volunteers! How can we expect our children to know and experience the joy of giving unless we teach them that the greater pleasure in life lies in the art of giving rather than receiving.

Have a blessed Month!

Trish Wilcox

We know the holidays are a busy time for you and your family, so let's get straight to the point. Here's everything you need to know about our ministry this month!

A few things coming up....

*Women's Conference Nov. 2nd (open to teenage girls as well)

*Hardin County Collective Nov. 3rd watch for more information in the bulletin

*Wednesday Night Youth- Pizza Hut Nov. 20th

*Poinsettia Sales Starting

Our Youth this month will be studying a series called "Us for them" a 4week series on loving others. Don't you just love a little friendly competition? There's something about being a part of a team that makes you excited to root for "us" and root against "them." With people and with God, we're often quick to see others like our enemies, but God invites us to see things differently. In this 4-week series, we'll explore the stories of Abraham, Jeremiah, Jonah, Isaiah, and more, as we see how the big story of Scripture reveals that God is for us, we're called to be for others, God is for our enemies, and Jesus proves that God is for us.

As a parent, we know you want your kids to grow up to be people who make the world a better place . . . but sometimes you wonder how, exactly, you're supposed to do that. Here's one really important way you can build generosity and compassion in your kid: serve others, together.

Lake of Lights—Live Nativity

The church is scheduled to be the Live Nativity on Sunday, December 8 from 6-8 PM. Mark your calendars and watch the bulletin for more information on how to volunteer that night. The youth program will receive a portion of the proceeds that night. Come out and support them that evening and see a great display of lights!

Volunteer Opportunity:

The Lake of Lights Committee is gearing up for our 2019 event. On our "Wish List", we hope for many volunteers to come to the park to help with the set up of the Lake of Lights Display. They are at the park starting Nov 2nd. They hope you will spare a few hours to help them with this community event. Just a few hours of your help will be very appreciated. Nov 2/3 Nov 9/10 Nov 16/17 Nov 23/24
Hours Saturday 9:30 am to 5:00 pm
Sunday 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm
Come out any time during these hours and they will help you get started. It is a great way to give back to our community. If you volunteer, remember to mark that you are working for St. John's Church and your hours will go towards the youth.

Thank you!

HCC Youth Group Next Meeting: Sunday, November 3 from 5-7:30 PM at Walnut Grove Church. Please wear black or dark colors for games.

Winter Jam 2020: February 22 at The Schottenstein Center, Columbus Join Crowder, Hillsong Young & Free, Andy Mineo, and many more awesome artist, with special guest speaker Greg Stier! More information to come.
