THE PASTOR'S PAGE

There's an old joke from Punxsutawney, PA about a Sunday School teacher who thought she wasn't reaching the children. The kids could name every secular holiday, but knew nothing about the church and its faith. She asked them about Easter. After comments about eggs and bunnies and chocolate, she asked if anyone knew what Easter had to do with their Christian faith. Finally, one little boy raised his hand and said, "Teacher, I know what Easter is about. It's about Jesus rising real early in the morning." "Yes," the teacher thought to herself.

Lil' Johnny continued, "And then Jesus peaks His head out of the tomb. If He sees His shadow, we have six more weeks of Lent." With the biggest smile on his face, the little cherub concluded: "And that's what Easter is all about." Immediately after that, the teacher resigned from her position and currently serves on the Stewardship Committee.

It will be interesting to see what Easter will look like as we slowly emerge from our quarantines and social distancing. Will we dare to jubilantly and boisterously proclaim: "Jesus is risen! He is risen indeed!?" Or will we soften our proclamation lest we spray our neighbor with some airborne contagion? Will we embrace in joy, or will we awkwardly wave peace signs at one another?

In the northern hemisphere, the celebration of the Easter resurrection coincides with new life budding and flowering all around. New life abounds as flora and fauna emerge from their wintry quarantine. It's unmistakable; it's undeniable as sings of new life surrounds us—the smells, the sights, the sounds...

Now, does the same hold true for the Church? Do people see new life abounding in her citizens? Do they hear the Good News proclaimed from the depths of our being so the rapturous song echoes from early morning until well past twilight? Do people smell new life clinging to us or the stale mustiness of being confined to our couches for too long? Do they witness us bearing witness to them or have the vibrant colors of new life been muted in us?

With help from another duck, let me introduce you to Ephesians 5:14:

Paul is reminding the church in Ephesus that if they are truly saved their lives will look, feel, sound, and even smell differently than it had prior to knowing Christ. In his letter, Paul was referring to immorality that had crept into the lives of believers and how they needed to leave sin in the past as they grew in faith and sanctification.

He could have very easily been discussing evangelism as well. If we have been touched by the Resurrection power of Christ, we will be transformed. Such a transformation is unmistakable, and it is undeniable if it has truly taken hold. Think back to that first Resurrection Sunday. The change wasn't something to shrug back, shrink from, or to quietly whisper to one's self. No!

The message was meant to be shared for the Resurrection had changed everything, and it would change everyone who would receive it, and the same holds true to this day!

First and foremost, the women were to bear witness to

ST. JOHN'S EVANGELICAL CHURCH:
MAKING AND MATURING
DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST

But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed.
You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified.

He is risen!

He is not here.
See the place where they laid Him."

Mark 16:6 (NKJV)

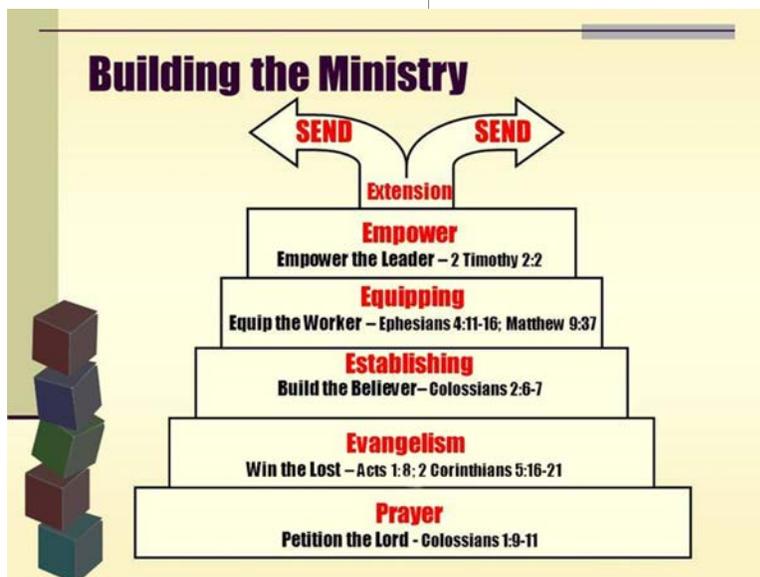

into the world through the process that God has ordained. It is as simple as bearing witness to the work that God has done through His Son, and the Holy Spirit will cause new growth to come about.

Like a garden, it takes a plan, and it takes cultivation. There are steps that need to be followed. There has to be a commitment to do the work. The reward comes for those who are willing to do the work and remain committed to it.

the empty tomb as evidence of Christ's Resurrection. After that, God's messenger commanded them to go: "But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He is going before you to Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you" (Mark 16:7).

This is our faith. We take an old story, an old plan, and an old process, and we employ them in our lives and dare to share them with those who do not know. This is the gift that is ours in Christ Jesus. We simply have to bear witness to the work that He has done. We leave behind the old ways and labor for the new. We do so without reservation or excuse.

There was no room for doubt or fear. The time was for bold proclamation. The same holds true after all these years. Even in a time when many want to huddle away from others, this is a season to boldly proclaim the Good News. It is a time to be seen as we glow with the presence of Christ, the presence of New Life at work in us. It is a time for us to draw near to people so they can smell the new life that clings to us.

This year, we do it especially because of the situation we are in. People need now more than ever to hear that there is hope, and there is a power that enables us to overcome. This year, we need to proclaim the truth of Easter in all its glory to a world that desperately needs to hear of it and experience it for themselves, and they will never hear it if we do not boldly proclaim it.

Throughout our series on Micah, I have referred to this slide on building the ministry. It's nothing radical, profound or new. However, it is life-changing. Like the spring season and Eastertide, it is all about new life coming

Make your Easter proclamation heard: CHRIST IS RISEN! HE IS RISEN INDEED!

With love and faith and service,

Pastor Randall

Preaching Series

Our Lenten Journey ends as our Easter journey begins. There will be no Passion Play again this year, but we will be gathering in person for Maundy Thursday and Good Friday worship services. In some ways, our Holy Week Services harken back to a bygone era while providing us with a springboard to think about what is yet ahead for our church as we witness to the Lord post-COVID.

After Easter, we will complete our study of the prophet Micah, and then we will continue with some other prophets until the first week of June. During the Summer, you are once again invited to submit sermon suggestions to the pastor. That can be in the form of scripture to use or topics to cover. You may also suggest hymns or other elements you would like to see included on a Sunday.

An Easter Flower Gift

O dearest bloom the seasons know,
Flowers of the Resurrection blow,
Our hope and faith restore;
And through the bitterness of death
And loss and sorrow, breathe and breath
Of life forevermore!

The thought of Love Immortal blends
With fond remembrances of friends;
In you, O sacred flowers,
By human love made doubly sweet,
The heavenly and the earthly meet,
The heart of Christ is ours!

~ John Greenleaf Whittier

Easter

I got me flowers to straw Thy way,
I got me boughs off many a tree;
But Thou wast up by break of day,
And brought'st Thy sweets along with Thee.
Yet though my flowers be lost, they say
A heart can never come too late;
Teach it to sing Thy praise this day,
And then this day my life shall date.

~ George Herbert (1593-1632)

Easter

Most glorious Lord of Lyfe! that, on this day,
Didst make Thy triumph over death and sin;
And, having harrowd hell, didst bring away
Captivity thence captive, us to win:
This joyous day, deare Lord, with joy begin;
And grant that we, for whom thou diddest dye,
Being with Thy deare blood clene washt from sin,
May live for ever in felicity!

And that Thy love we weighing worthily,
Make likewise love Thee for the same againe;
And for Thy sake, that all lyke deare didst buy,
With love may one another entertayne!
So let us love, deare Love, lyke as we ought,
Love is the lesson which the Lord us taught.

~ Edmund Spenser

Beneath Thy Cross

Am I a stone, and not a sheep,
That I can stand, O Christ, beneath thy cross,
To number drop by drop Thy Blood's slow loss,
And yet not weep?

Not so those women loved
Who with exceeding grief lamented Thee;
Not so fallen Peter weeping bitterly;
Not so the thief was moved;

Not so the Sun and Moon
Which hid their faces in a starless sky,
A horror of great darkness at broad noon--
I, only I.

Yet give not o'er,
But seek Thy sheep, true Shepherd of the flock;
Greater than Moses, turn and look once more
And smite a rock.

~ Christina Rossetti

The Shadow of the Cross

At the drowsy dusk when the shadows creep
From the golden west, where the sunbeams
sleep,
An angel mused: "Is there good or ill
In the mad world's heart, since on Calvary's hill
'Round the cross a mid-day twilight fell
That darkened earth and o'ershadowed hell?"
Through the streets of a city the angel sped;
Like an open scroll men's hearts he read.
In a monarch's ear his courtiers lied
And humble faces hid hearts of pride.
Men's hate waxed hot, and their hearts grew cold,
As they haggled and fought for the lust of gold.
Despairing, he cried, "After all these years
Is there naught but hatred and strife and tears?"

He found two waifs in an attic bare;
-- A single crust was their meagre fare --
One strove to quiet the other's cries,
And the love-light dawned in her famished eyes
As she kissed the child with a motherly air:
"I don't need mine, you can have my share."
Then the angel knew that the earthly cross
And the sorrow and shame were not wholly loss.

At dawn, when hushed was earth's busy hum
And men looked not for their Christ to come,
From the attic poor to the palace grand,
The King and the beggar went hand in hand.

~ John McCrae (1872-1918)

Mission of the Month— Helping Hands

Helping Hands is a nonprofit, Christian-based outreach for Hardin County. Their mission is to help families rise up out of the economic struggles. Helping Hands has many different facets of ministry. Although they started with back-to-school supplies they now distribute bread and food boxes every day. They also host Thanksgiving Dinner and Christmas gifts for the elderly and underprivileged families. They do fruit and treat bags for the elderly for Valentines Day and Easter.
They also do an Easter Dinner for underprivileged families and Easter baskets for the children which includes a talk about what Easter is all about. No one associated with Helping Hands is on payroll. Countless people of our community donate their time.
They are continually looking for new people to lend a hand at the different events. If you are interested in volunteering or learning more about the ministry, they can be reached at 419-673-8650 or dwag-

Hey parents! We're about to begin a special two-week Easter series, so here's what you need to know....

Here are a few things coming up in our ministry . . .

Hardin County Collective will meet next month on May 2nd at Christian Missionary Alliance Church. We are so excited to get this group back together. I ask for prayers that God continues to lead us and that the Youth learn more of Gods love.

What we're Teaching this month...

Easter is the day we celebrate Jesus rising from the dead, but let's be honest — that's not always easy to believe. How does someone just stop being dead? Are we sure it happened? What if it didn't? And if it did, so what? What does it have to do with our lives today? Well, it turns out we're not the only ones who've asked questions like this. When Jesus died, even His closest friends and followers had questions, fears, and doubts. In this 2-week series, we'll see how Jesus shared the good news with His friends that He really was alive, and that nothing (not even death) could separate them from God's love — not ever. The same is true for us today and forever. Because the love of Jesus is bigger than our doubts and gives us hope.

Tip of the Month

Take a few minutes this week to find a quiet place to yourself. Once you're there, talk to God about what the resurrection of Jesus means to you — and what questions you still have. God can handle it. Here's a song for you to listen to and think about while you pray. (O come to the alter, Elevation Worship)

Resource of the Month

This Easter, are you hoping to make spending time with God more of a priority at home? Check out these illustrated journals — there's one for each book of the Bible, and they're perfect for your teenager or for you! (found on Amazon, ESV Illuminated Scripture Journal: New Testament Set)

Question on the Month

We're wondering . . . How does your family celebrate Easter? Email us and let us know. michellesjyouth@gmail.com

Thank you for supporting the Youth during our Easter Flower Sale. We really appreciate the continued support. God Bless you all!

KIDS CORNER

Sunday School with Miss Hope and Miss Natasha begins at 9am each Sunday. Bring your Child to hear more about God's word.

Easter Sunday April 4th- Sunday School classes at 9am, will be having a scavenger hunt, donuts and etc. Come celebrate with us!

Wednesday Night Kids will wrap up this month, our last Kids Night is April 28.

VBS is scheduled for June 7-10 mark your calendars & watch for more details.

What we're Teaching this month...

We are continuing with The Lord's Prayer. Each week your child will go home with a little more understanding of the Lord's Prayer and what it represents. By the end of this month, they should know....

- We need to pray all the time.
- God wants us to pray to Him.
- Prayer helps us to learn Gods plans for our lives.
- Prayer shows us that God provides for us.
- Forgive others because God has forgiven you.
- Prayer helps us turn away from sin.

Each week a "Parent Talk" is sent home with your child with 5 simple ways you can help the lesson stick with your child, whether it's in the car, hanging out, at dinner, or even at bedtime. This is a great way to get talking to one another about Gods word and maybe even learn from each other. They will also be memorizing The Lords Prayer, if they don't already know it.

Tip of the Month

This week's #D6EveryDay Parent Page encourages families to talk about how Jesus loves us so much He was willing to humble Himself, serve us, and die for us. Help your children understand that we should humbly serve others, following Jesus' example.

Use the free D6 Family App to find discussion starters & discipleship truths.

April is a time of hope and rebirth in Ohio. It is also known for one of the greatest tragedies in State history. We are charged by Scripture to minister to the “least of these”. When researching this story, I was struck by how many of those who perished were incarcerated for minor crimes and quite young. We should ask ourselves how we are ministering to those in prison. Where is the prison ministry, we were involved with ten years ago? Covid will be over soon-no excuses.

“On April 21, 1930, the Ohio Penitentiary experienced the worst disaster in its history. A terrible fire broke out in the early evening, eventually killing 322 inmates. Not only was the state penitentiary fire the worst fire in Ohio's history, it was also the worst fire in U.S. prison history.

There was little debate about the source of the fire. Apparently, a candle ignited some oily rags left on the roof of the West Block, also known as the Big Block, of the penitentiary. The fire became noticeable just after prisoners were locked into their cells for the evening. Although many inmates died from the flames, others perished after breathing poisonous smoke from some burning lumber.

The reasons why someone started the fire and why it turned into such a tragedy have been more heavily disputed. Prison officials claimed that three prisoners, hoping to start a diversion so that they could escape, had started the fire intentionally. Two of the three accused inmates died by suicide in the months following the fire, seemingly substantiating that claim. Other observers believed that the fire had been a tragic accident. They felt that prison officials had accused the inmates as a means of diverting attention from the administration's poor handling of the emergency.

Regardless of the cause, conditions within the penitentiary had been ripe for a disaster for years. There had been concern about crowded conditions within the Ohio Penitentiary for more than twenty years. By 1930, the prison held an inmate population that was twice as large as its original capacity. Responding to this problem after the fire, prison administrators transferred several hundred inmates to a prison farm in London, Ohio.”
