

St. John's:
Making and Maturing
Disciples of Jesus Christ

Then Jesus took the loaves,
and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish,
as much as they wanted.

Psalm 14:1-7

L: ¹The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.”

They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds;
there is none who does good.

²The Lord looks down from heaven on the children of man,
to see if there are any who understand,
who seek after God.

³They have all turned aside; together they have become corrupt;
there is none who does good,
not even one.

⁴Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the Lord?

⁵There they are in great terror,
for God is with the generation of the righteous.

⁶You would shame the plans of the poor,
but the Lord is his refuge.

C: ⁷Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!
When the Lord restores the fortunes of His people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

Scripture Readings (ESV):

II Kings 4:42-44:

⁴² A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And Elisha said, “Give to the men, that they may eat.” ⁴³ But his servant said, “How can I set this before a hundred men?” So he repeated, “Give them to the men, that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, ‘They shall eat and have some left.’” ⁴⁴ So he set it before them. And they ate and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

John 6:1-15:

¹After this Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias. ² And a large crowd was following Him, because they saw the signs that He was doing on the sick. ³ Jesus went up on the mountain, and there He sat down with His disciples. ⁴ Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. ⁵ Lifting up His eyes, then, and seeing that a large crowd was coming toward Him, Jesus said to Philip, “Where are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?” ⁶ He said this to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do. ⁷ Philip answered Him, “Two hundred denarii worth of bread would not be enough for each of them to get a little.” ⁸ One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, ⁹ “There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are they for so many?” ¹⁰ Jesus said, “Have the people sit down.” Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, about five thousand in number. ¹¹ Jesus then took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed them to those who were seated. So also the fish, as much as they wanted. ¹² And when they had eaten their fill, He told His disciples, “Gather up the leftover fragments, that nothing may be lost.” ¹³ So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves left by those who had eaten. ¹⁴ When the people saw the sign that He had done, they said, “This is indeed the Prophet who is to come into the world!” ¹⁵ Perceiving then that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, Jesus withdrew again to the mountain by Himself.

Sermon Notes

11 July 2021

Scripture: II Kings 4:42-44; John 6:1-15

Sermon: The Leftovers

1. Besides the passages for today, where do you see in the Bible God providing abundantly for His people? How does He continue to do that today and throughout history?
2. What does the feeding of the 5,000 mean to you? How does God ask you, like Philip (John 6:5), to share miraculously with others?
3. When God performs miracles and wonders, how easily do you give Him all the glory? How do you hope to have some of the 'shine' fall upon you? What brings you back to giving God all the glory?
4. What do you think of leftovers? How do you plan to gather your leftovers and share them so that "nothing is wasted" as Jesus commanded?
